1. The VEB Film und Chemiefaserwerk Agfa/Wolfen and DIA-Chemie are experiencing difficulties in marketing Agfa color film. The export plan for the first quarter 1954 included 170,000 square meters of this film.

2. The principal reason given for this difficulty is that the USSR is not buying color film from East Germany in the same amounts as it used to take as reparations deliveries. Furthermore, the USSR-owned Agfa Wolfen made reparations deliveries of Agfa color film to the USSR nearly twice the normal amounts for the fourth quarter of 1953.
